The Knox College Department of Art and Art History is seeking applications from printmakers to be Artist in Residence during spring 2021. This teaching residency, supported by a grant from locally-based Blick Art Materials, has a three-fold purpose: to enrich the educational experience of students through exposure to perspectives and ways of working not represented by regular faculty or curricula. To involve/benefit the Galesburg community through collaborative projects, exhibits, or educational opportunities. And, for resident artists to develop and exhibit a body of work while in residence. Applicants should hold an MFA and be prepared to teach a course related to their creative practice (to be determined). Artists with interest in engaging economically, culturally, and racially diverse communities through their work are encouraged to apply.

Note: This residency program will contingent on the status of Covid-19 restrictions during spring, and will be cancelled no later than February 1, 2021 in the event that in-person classes are not permitted.
