

Business and Management (open rank)

Knox College invites applications for a continuing faculty appointment in Business and Management to begin September 1, 2024. Applicants will be considered at all ranks in either conventional tenure track appointment or professor of practice.

Knox's Integrated Business and Management major is rooted in the College's liberal arts ethos. The successful candidate will seek to cultivate and enrich that ethos and develop a vision for the program that unites training in business leadership with a dedication to serving the public good. Therefore, we seek applications from Business and Management scholars with interests in novel approaches to teaching, scholarship, and program development.

The successful candidate will have interest and experience in teaching management, marketing, finance, or other related topics at all undergraduate levels. Disciplinary specialization is open, but candidates should be able to teach both introductory and specialized business and management courses in a liberal arts college environment that values collaboration and interdisciplinary exploration.

A Knox education emphasizes active and immersive learning. Therefore, we welcome applications from candidates with interest in developing innovative experiential learning opportunities for students. We will consider applications from non-traditional candidates to serve as professor of practice. The normal teaching load is two courses during each of three ten-week academic terms. Advising and mentorship of advanced students are included in the responsibilities for faculty appointments.

Knox is a diverse college with over 35% of the student body identifying as American students of color and more than 15% international students. Business and Management faculty work hard to enroll a diverse group of students at all levels of instruction and successful candidates should be prepared to work to make Business and Management courses appealing and welcoming to all of Knox's students. Experience working with diverse populations of students and a commitment to teach successfully in a multicultural environment are expected.

Knox College provides a competitive salary and a strong benefit package including health, dental, vision and life insurance, and access to a retirement plan; a tuition remission benefit is available after a two-year waiting period. Additional information can be found on our Human Resources webpage at

Required Qualifications:

- For tenure track appointments, a doctorate in business, business administration, management, finance, or related field is expected at time of appointment; exceptional ABD candidates will be considered.

- Non-traditional candidates with at least 10 years of business experience at an administrative or executive level will be considered for continuing appointments as “professor of practice.” MBA required.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience teaching undergraduates as the instructor of record.

Candidates should submit:

- a cover letter addressing the candidate’s preparation for inclusive teaching at a diverse liberal arts college;
- a curriculum vitae or resume;
- an unofficial graduate transcript;
- three confidential letters of recommendation.
