

Artist in Residence (Ceramics) Knox College / Galesburg, Illinois

The Knox College Department of Art and Art History is seeking applications from artists working in ceramics to be Artist in Residence during spring 2023. This teaching residency, supported by a grant from locally-based Blick Art Materials, has a three-fold purpose: to enrich the educational experience of students through exposure to perspectives and ways of working not represented by regular faculty or curricula. To involve/benefit the Galesburg community through collaborative projects, exhibits, or educational opportunities. And, for resident artists to develop and exhibit a body of work while in residence. Applicants should hold an MFA and be prepared to teach a course related to their creative practice that is appropriate for entry-level students. Artists with interest in engaging economically, culturally, and racially diverse communities through their work are encouraged to apply.

When: Spring 2023 (March 20 - June 1)

Where: Knox College is located in Galesburg IL, a city of 32,000, located 200 miles SW of Chicago, approximately 3 hours by car or 2.5 hours by train.
