

Health Services Peer Educator

THE IMPORTANCE OF STUDENT LEADERS AT KNOX

Student leaders play a vital role in shaping the Knox College experience. While our leadership opportunities are diverse, each has the common goal of enhancing campus life, complementing the academic experience, and upholding the College's values of critical thinking, inclusivity, respect and support. Student leaders are able to affect change on campus through mentoring, advocacy, peer education and program development. They experience the fulfillment of service as well as the added benefit of marketable skills such as communication, conflict resolution, and time management.

Health Services Peer Educators are campus partners who will play a part in educating the Knox College community about health-related topics as well as services provided at Health Services. Working under the direction of the Director of Health Services, Health Services Peer Educators will participate in educational workshops, outreach services, and promotion of Health Services. The position is open to all students and strives to be representative of the diverse and inclusive Knox Community. Peer educators are not healthcare professionals and will not have access to confidential records or information.

Responsibilities:

- Spring term prior to starting employment (new peer educators only): successfully complete IDIS 130: Introduction to Leadership course (.5 credit).
- Attend all aspects of designated training, including prior to the beginning of the Fall term.
- Provide and develop programming ideas, facilitate interactive workshops and assist in the planning of a variety of campus-wide events and activities to increase awareness and educate members of campus.
- Attend and facilitate additional co-curricular presentations, programs, and interactive campus workshops throughout the academic year designed to help promote health awareness.
- Consult regularly with the Director of Health Services to share updates and concerns.

Characteristics:

- Have a strong commitment to increasing health awareness on campus in a proactive manner through primary prevention strategies.
- A strong commitment to the goals, mission, and values of Knox College. Each Health Services Peer Educator must abide by

- professional and ethical standards of conduct, including all Knox College policies.
- Enthusiasm, initiative, and a desire to cultivate leadership potential.
  - Strong communications and presentation skills, including the ability to facilitate discussions and work with a diverse student body.
  - Maintain good academic and social standing at Knox College for the entire academic year.
- Ability to commit to the Health Services Peer Educator program for a minimum of one academic year. Peer educators will be trained initially prior to Fall Term and ongoing training will occur as needed throughout the year.
  - Ability to collaborate proactively with Health Services staff and other departments/individuals as deemed necessary.
  - Willingness to participate in initial and ongoing training.
  - Willingness to devote, at minimum, ten hours of direct participation as a Health Services Peer Educator each term. These participation hours include facilitating presentations, assisting with organizing events, and actively participating in outreach efforts.
  - Willingness to be involved in planning campus initiatives designed to educate students about their health.

Compensation:

- Peer educators will receive hourly compensation adjusted to reflect minimum wage increases as appropriate and are expected to contribute a minimum of 10 hours of service each term.
