What to Do

1. The person’s health and safety is the primary concern. If anyone’s safety is an immediate concern, contact Campus Safety anytime at 309-341-7979 or call 9-1-1.

2. If someone tells you they have experienced sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, induced incapacitation, sexual exploitation, stalking, or interpersonal violence—first offer them support. Listen to them and encourage them to seek professional help and counseling as soon as possible.

3. Tear this card at the perforation. Keep this half of the card for your information and provide the other half to the person who experienced sexual misconduct.

4. Report the incident to a Title IX team member in accordance with the policy on the back of this card.

5. If there is any question about how to proceed after a conversation with someone who has experienced sexual misconduct, call and consult with the Title IX Coordinator at 309-341-7751.

What to Know

• You set the pace.
• You have the right to choose to whom you will speak, what resources you will use, what you will say, and when you will say it.
• There are many resources available to help you, both at the College and in the community (see reverse side).
• It is your choice whether to name the other person(s).
• Your information will be kept private and only shared with those who “need to know.” We want to assist you in taking the steps you need to feel safe and cared for, and make sure others in the community are safe.
• Knox College prohibits sex discrimination, sexual misconduct, and interpersonal violence.

Who Needs to Report?
All College employees, including students in leadership positions or volunteers, are required to report to a College resource. You may contact any of the following:

Title IX Coordinator, Kim Schrader, 309-341-7751
Old Jail 12, 337 S. Cherry Street

Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Crystal Bohm, 309-341-7200
Administrative Services Center, 368 S. Prairie Street

Campus Safety, 309-341-7979

Vice President for Student Development, Anne Ehrlich, 309-341-7221
Old Main 101, 2 East South Street

Dean of the College, 309-341-7216
Old Main 105, 2 East South Street

Why Do I Need to Report?
• To ensure that the reporting party (victim/survivor) has access to all of the available resources, including interim remedies and measures.
• To help identify individuals displaying patterns of behavior.
• To help identify and address any trends or systemic problems.
• To keep our campus safe and respectful for all.

What to Say
• There are many resources available to help you, both at the College and in the community. Some resources are strictly confidential.
• I have a responsibility to connect you to the Title IX Coordinator who will reach out to you to help you take care of your own personal safety and physical and emotional well-being, direct you to resources, and explain your options if you want the College to take action.
• The Title IX Coordinator will keep your information private and will only share it with those who “need to know.” You have the right to choose whom you will speak, what resources you will see, what you will say, and when you will say it.

Non-Retaliation Policy
It is a violation of College Policy to retaliate in any way against a person or persons because they have, in good faith, opposed any practices forbidden under the College Policy Against Sex Discrimination, Sexual Misconduct, and Interpersonal Violence or have filed a report, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation or proceeding under the Policy, including action taken against a bystander who intervened to stop or attempted to stop sex discrimination, sexual misconduct or interpersonal violence.
